

Silicon Valley Arbitration & Mediation Center Announces Corporate Counsel Task Force

April 20, 2020 Palo Alto, Calif.—Silicon Valley Arbitration & Mediation Center (SVAMC) has announced the members of their Corporate Counsel Task Force. The new Task Force will enable SVAMC to better serve the global technology sector by promoting business practical resolution of disputes. According to SVAMC CEO Les Schiefelbein: "SVAMC will now be the thought leader to engage corporate counsel in a positive discussion on the benefits and challenges of ADR in technology disputes, and for increased participation in SVAMC initiatives, activities and membership." The SVAMC members named to the Task Force are noted and accomplished lawyers with extensive in-house counsel experience or have worked with corporate counsel in technology based ADR matters.

The members of the SVAMC Corporate Counsel Task Force are:

Chiann Bao, Arbitration Chambers (Hong Kong)

Liz Chung, Microsoft (Seoul)

Teresa Garcia-Reyes, Baker Hughes (Houston)

Duarte Henriques, Victoria Associates (Lisbon)

Mike Lampert, Lampert ADR (New York)

Paul Mason, Arbitrator and Mediator (Miami/Rio de Janeiro)

Mark Morril, Morril ADR (New York)

Ina Popova, Debevoise & Plimpton (New York)

Steve Smith, Steve Smith ADR (Denver)

###

About Silicon Valley Arbitration & Mediation Center (SVAMC)

SVAMC is a non-profit serving the global technology sector through educational programming and related activities. SVAMC works with leading technology companies, law firms, ADR institutions and universities in Silicon Valley and around the globe to promote effective and efficient resolution of technology-related business disputes. SVAMC is an affiliate of the Global Technology Dispute Resolution Council.

Visit SVAMC.org or connect with us on Twitter, Facebook or LinkedIn.