

Save the Date: February 11 -12, 2020*Stanford University - SVAMC Patent and Technology
Alternative Dispute Resolution Advanced Course

A two-day comprehensive advocacy training course on patent and technology arbitration and mediation for advocates. This course features lecture and interactive segments and is designed for experienced lawyers.

When

February 11 -12, 2020 | 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 pm

Followed by reception and dinner on February 11

Where

Stanford Law School | Paul Brest Hall

Enhance your skills and experience to succeed in patent and technology ADR proceedings. This course will include topics such as:

- pre-filing considerations
- presenting your patent/technology case in arbitration
- pleading strategies
- effective representation in mediation
- selecting arbitrators
- comparisons between US and international arbitration
- challenging arbitrator appointments
- post-award enforcement and challenges
- arbitration jurisdiction
- ethical issues in patent and tech ADR

Leading Stanford Law academics, experienced patent and tech ADR neutrals and litigators will share their knowledge and experience to make patent and tech ADR work for you and your clients.

Participants will receive a Stanford Law School course certificate.
CLE credit approval pending.

---

Presented by:

Stanford Law School
Martin Daniel Gould
Center for Conflict
Resolution Programs

SILICON
VALLEY
ARBITRATION
& MEDIATION
CENTER